SCHOOL TEACHING AND SCHOOL REFORM.

A Course of Four Lectures on SCHOOL CURRICULA AND METHODS, delivered to Secondary Teachers and Teachers in Training at Birmingham during February, 1905.

By SIR OLIVER LODGE.
Principal of the University of Birmingham.

DR. MACNAMARA in the Daily Chronicle.—"Let me commend this wise volume not only to teachers but to all concerned in national education. And especially to the politician. Half an hour with Sir Oliver Lodge would make him realise that there are problems on the inner side of the school door not dreamt of in his philosophy—would make him feel that the more he knows of these the better will he be able wisely to handle those others about which he is glibly talking every day."

A POPULAR RE-ISSUE.
Large Crown 8vo. 500 pages. 7s. 6d.

FIRST PRINCIPLES.
By HERBERT SPENCER.

"It is a shapely volume in new type, soberly bound, fronted with a good photogravure of the Onslow Ford bust, and published at three half-crowns. A complete re-issue of the 'Synthetic Philosophy,' uniform with this volume now to hand, will form, with the recent Autobiography, the best and most enduring monument to our modern philosopher."—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE AMERICANS. By HUGO MÜNSTERBERG, Professor of Psychology at Harvard University. Translated by EDWIN B. HOLT, Ph.D., Instructor at Harvard University.

"Though Professor Münsterberg by no means professes to offer an exhaustive survey and regards his facts and figures as purely illustrative, his selection has been so comprehensive that it may safely be asserted that an intelligent European is likely to ask few questions to which an answer, supported by authoritative information, cannot be provided out of this volume."—Manchester Guardian.

TRUTH IN CONFLICT WITH THE CREEDS.

By JOHN A. BOWMAN.

If Theology does not move forward it will stagnate or fall; and then there is grave risk that Religion itself may lose hold upon the intellect of a Church or of a Nation.

"It is clear that the Liberal Party is going to have a big—perhaps a colossal majority. What will it do with that majority? That, I fear, is not so clear. We must all welcome, therefore, such a volume as the Speaker Office has produced under the title of 'Towards a Social Policy.' It is full of hard thinking and solid information, and should be a mine for platform speakers in the coming General Election."—DAILY CHRONICLE.
"The book should be in the hand of everyone who loves his country. It is a lucid and comprehensive statement of the causes of the blight that is falling upon the race, and of the remedies to be applied."—DAILY NEWS.
